ROCKET STAFF WISHES CARL A HAPPY RETIREMENT

The Rocket Staff would like to dedicate the annual to Carl Nicodemus, who is retiring this year. Carl, or Nick as others call him, has been a janitor at the school since July of 1958. This means that he has faithfully come to school for twelve years. He surely must have swept under a lot of desks during all those years! At the same time he has put up with the Class of '70 during all their years in school. In that respect, he deserves to receive a diploma since he, too, like the senior class, is graduating from his work at Maxwell High.

Carl has always had a smile for everyone when he has met them in the hall. He has had to have a lot of patience just to be able to put up with all the stunts that have been pulled and have had to be cleaned up. Carl has also provided a welcome break for those of us on the annual staff when he has stopped in to talk to us.

We sincerely wish Carl much happiness in his retirement, and we hope that he will do a lot of some much-deserved fishing. As the above picture shows, he has the plans and the equipment with which to do it. And so, the Rocket Staff, on behalf of all the students at M.H.S., wish Carl a good retirement and a lot of luck with his fishing.

FOREWORD

Thinking about some captions that they're not going to use.

Jean and Bonnie hard at work

Putting out an annual is much harder than most people think it is. First of all a general outline or plan for the book must be devised which is often hard to work out since every division page must be on a right-hand page. Next comes going around to all of the businesses and getting ads which help to finance the book. Putting out an annual involves arranging each picture and caption on a big sheet of graph paper. But not only this, each picture has to be either cropped, enlarged, or decreased so it will fit its allotted space. Each caption must also be worded so that it will fit into the space that has been planned for it. The big process, however, comes in getting all of the pictures taken that go into an annual. This requires having the camera on hand a t just the right time. The typing process is another long procedure that goes into putting an annual together. Most of the captions and body type have been typed approximately four times on the average. These captions are all typed on a separate sheet from the main layout sheet which just adds to the confusion. Among these things come losing the school number stamp, losing the black ink pen which must be used to label all pictures, and finding people and time enough to work. From looking at the annual staff picture in any annual, anyone would think that with so many people it wouldn't take very long to put out an annual. But this unfortunately is not the case. Instead usually five or six loyal persons are the ones who do most of the work. It seems that most of the others in the picture want the glory of being able to say that they went out for the annual staff, but don't want the hard work that goes along with it.

But in spite of all the hard work and obstacles which are encountered, the enjoyment of the completed book far surpasses these things and only serve to give those who put out the book a feeling of accomplishment.

We of the annual staff hope that you will enjoy the 1970 ROCKET. We hope that it will help to bring memories of the 1969-1970 school year for many years to come.

FACULTY

I would like to wish much success to all of the Maxwell students in their future endeavors. It seems like we must all really move just to keep pace with this dynamic society of ours. This takes much drive and "stick-to itiveness" to do a good job in every walk of life. The person who is willing to set back and let the world go by is not contributing anything worthwhile. Each of us should do our part to improve the conditions in which we live. If we're all willing to accept this challenge—this responsibility—we will enjoy a good life. Let's strive to do our very best in each and every endeavor!

DAVID W. TEIGLAND, Superintendant

The advent of area and vocational schools along with our colleges and universities has made it possible now for everyone to further his education. The door is open to all. The requirement is determination. Set your goal in such a way that you shall go through that door.

FIRST ROW: J. Mohler (Treas.), A. Thornwall, J. Owen (Sec'y.), C. Schauper (Pres.), Mrs. Schoeneman (Advisor),
SECOND ROW: R. Myers, K. Murrow, C. Hand (V. Pres.), D. Cairns

The Student Council with their advisor, Mrs. Schoeneman, have carried out a variety of projects this 1969-1970 school year.

The council sponsored all Homecoming activities, two sock hops, a bake sale to help pay for cheerleading outfits, and a cake raffle with proceeds going to the Boyd Bailey Fund. (Boyd Bailey is a Bondurant-Farrar student who was seriously injured in a wrestling match.) The council revised the student dress code, which was a main project. Meetings with teacher representatives were held toward the end of the year to improve student-faculty relations. The student lounge was implemented and supplied with a pop machine.

There have been a few drawbacks, but the council members feel that they have had a fairly successful year with hopes to do better in the future.

Installation of '70-'71 Officers

The Future Homemakers of America have had a busy year. Last summer a bake sale was held to raise money to send Kathy Lowe to the national F.H.A. convention in Fort Collins, Colorado.

In the fall, the chapter prepared the programs, a skit, and the evaluation sheets for the district meeting which was held at North High in Des Moines. At this meeting Barb Lowe was installed as district president.

Later on in the year another bake sale was held to earn money.

The big project of the year was organizing the school Christmas party at which the theme of Mexico was used. The girls also decorated the classrooms at Christmastime.

This spring six of the girls attended the state convention held at Hotel Fort Des Moines.

Completing the year was the installation ceremony for the 1970-71 officers. A tea followed the installation.

The Newspaper Staff put out seven issues of the ROCKET REVIEW this year, coming out at Homecoming, Halloween, Thanksgiving, Christmas, Valentine's Day, Easter, and Graduation.

Early in the year, some of the staff members attended a journalism workshop at Iowa State University in Ames; those attending brought back several new and fresh ideas for the paper.

It is the newspaper staff's hope that next year these ideas may be carried out to a greater extent.

The concert band this year participated in the Ta-Ma-Ja Conference Band Festival in February which presented a concert in the Collins Gym.

The band also performed for the PTO, the Veterans' Day Assembly and for graduation.

Two members of the band, Kathy Lowe and Mark Teigland, were selected to perform in the State Honor Band which presented a public concert at KRNT Theater in Des Moines.

This is the first year for Maxwell to have a complete Stage Band. With part of the profits from the Swing Show, a string bass was purchased which adds much to the band. The Stage Band played for the Bill Riley Talent Show.

The Marching Band performed for all home football games and marched in the homecoming parade. The band also played for all home basketball games and pep assemblies. Two parades on Memorial Day and the Old Settlers' Parade and concert finished out the year.

In the fall, the mixed chorus worked many hours preparing for the Ta-Ma-Ja Vocal Festival which was held at Lenihan High School in Marshalltown. Thirty chorus members participated in an all-day rehearsal and performance for the public the same evening.

Two numbers were presented at the Christmas program with Georgia Griffith, student director, directing one selection.

In March, the Music Department presented its second annual Swing Show. The theme this year was "Where In The World But In America?" Many students were involved and worked hard to make the show enjoyable for all.

April brings music contest and this year's contest was held at Colo. Representing Maxwell were five soloists and two ensembles. Angela Neglia, alto soloist, earned a I (excellent) rating while all other contestants from Maxwell received II ratings.

Do you think they'll ever make it?

The Future Teachers of America had three main activities this year.

In October, the organization sold mum corsages for the homecoming dance.

In early November, the senior and junior F.T.A. members went to a campus F.T.A. meeting at Central College in Pella. Those attending were given a tour of the campus and a little more about the teaching profession was explained to them.

Throughout the year, several of the F.T.A. members did some practice teaching in the elementary and junior high grades.

It was a real pleasure working with a group of athletes as dedicated and loyal as this group of girls. A combination of young girls' zestful attitudes and the veterans' experience combined for a 13-6 record. I congratulate each one of you on one of the finest records Maxwell has had in girls' basketball.

How would YOU like to hold hands with a lobster?

Maxwell boys had a definite rebuilding this year, having two letterwinners back from last year's squad. Throughout the year we continued to improve on our fundamentals, but lack of experience was our greatest factor. We made a lot of mental mistakes as well as physical turnovers due to lack of experience and poise.

I feel that we should be much stronger next year with a fine nucleus of young men returning. Let's have a winning year next year. Work hard all summer and success will be ours.

Wrestling was practically as new to me as it was for the grapplers. It was amazing the way the wrestlers improved from the first match to the last. The boys did real well for their first year of wrestling. With the nucleus of the team back next year and with experience under their belts, we should hold our own in wrestling next season.

"Where in the World But in AMERICA?" was the very appropriate theme for the swing show this year. The audience was entertained by many soloists, dancers, instrumental groups and comedians.

Who can ever forget the Stripper, Hell's Angels, "Gimme A Little Kiss," the "Hokey, Pokey," the style show, the numbers by the mixed chorus or the many other wonderful acts which were so well MC'd by Mr. Hartzer.

It was truly an evening of delightful entertainment for all.

THE CLASS OF 1970 PRESENTS "WILLIE'S WEEKEND" A 3-ACT COMEDY APRIL 3, 1970

Denny Myers—Mr. Hodges, Paul Ness—Napoleon, Craig Swalwell—Captain Kidd

Gary Reeves and Denny Dolph—orderlies

Jean Myers—Shirley Linton, Bonnie Hubbard—Brenda Burton, Tom Summitt—Willie Winkle, Teresa Birchmier—Eva Wood

Linda Fehring—Mrs. Wood, Kathy Lowe—Janie Lou Higgins

Mona Sinclair—Mrs. MacDonald, Angela Neglia—Helen Mathews

It all started when Willie Winkle was sent, in a convalescent state, to the Bide Awee Nursing Home while his mother redecorated their home. Mrs. Winkle is the typical "son coddler" who fears that her wealthy son might have a heart attack. . . in which case his large inheritance goes to a cat hospital. First Willie meets Eva and then is made very much aware of the "befuddled" patients who believe themselves to be "Captain Kidd" and "Napoleon." And before you can take a deep breath, you are faced with a supposed burglary and kidnapping. . . topped off with a ransom note left by Captain Kidd, a sprained ankle, and an elopement before the curtain comes down on a side-splitting ending.

PLAYBOY AFTER DARK

Up go bunnies. . .

And more bunnies!

Julie and Steph practice their routine.

Isn't this fun?

The Junior-Senior Prom was held May 9, 1970, at the Indian Creek Country Club. The banquet began at 6:00 p.m., and the meal was served by six sophomore girls dressed in bunny costumes. Afterwards Julie Schauper and Stephani Caple did a dance routine which was followed by the reading of the Class Prophecy and Class Will. The Servers entertained those present by doing the Bunny Hop during which some of the men teachers joined the dance line. The Proud and Worried played for the dance, which began at 9:00. Two movies, "Salt and Pepper" and "Tell Them Willie Boy's Here", were shown at the Camelot Theater in Nevada following the dance. An early morning breakfast at Pam Smith's house followed the movies.

Here come the bunnies!
